

Yonder, Either

I am reading a wonderful book "The Egyptian" by Mika Waltari. The novel sold a million copies in Europe in seven translations; and now it has been put into English.

It is the story of the dreamer Pharaoh, named Akhnaton, who sought to establish world peace in the 14th century before Christ. He had about as much luck as we are having today.

Yet it isn't a mere historical novel. Actually, it is the biography of a court physician, named Simehi, the story of his love affairs, his battle with the priests and the politicians, and his journey over the ancient world to spy on the military preparations of the enemies of Egypt.

Reading it, I know why "The Egyptian" sold a million copies in its European editions. It is the book that comes along once in a generation, telling a story as old as humanity is, and yet as new as the imagination of a child.

The traveling doctor measures the affairs of other nations with a practiced eye while feeling in his heart with the priests and the politicians, and he is committed to a hopeless task of world peace.

It is the story of the death of Utopia. It has been told, of other rulers, and other countries, many times, always ending in the old refrain: "I Found No Peace."

But "The Egyptian" has something all his own. It is the story of the death of Utopia. It has been told, of other rulers, and other countries, many times, always ending in the old refrain: "I Found No Peace."

Years ago as a school-boy I crossed the path of the dreamer Pharaoh Akhnaton, in a mere history lesson. But the Finnish genius Mika Waltari has blown him up to life size in what is currently the world's greatest novel.

Father to Continue Fight for Child

Atlanta, Oct. 4 — (UP) — A father who succeeded to face charges of kidnapping his own daughter after an eight-month flight through six countries and seven states indicated today that he has only begun his fight for custody of the girl.

Charles M. Kenimer, Jr., 41, was brought here yesterday with his eight-year-old daughter, Betty Ann, after arranging a surrender through his attorneys at Augusta, Ga.

After fleeing thousands of miles with the little girl, Kenimer said he finally decided to give up because he knew that Fulton county (Atlanta) Investigator Lewis Cliburn was always "breathing down his neck."

Kenimer, a former wholesale liquor dealer who has one leg, was charged with kidnapping and freed on $3,000 bond. Betty Ann was released to the custody of her mother, Mrs. Wade Senter of Athens, Ga.

The father's surrender climaxed a two-year battle over legal custody of the child.

Kenimer spirited the youngster away last February during a visit to her grandfather here. They flew to Havana, Cuba, where they were joined by the present Mrs. Kenimer.

After two months, Investigator Cliburn traced them to a swank Havana apartment. While he was awaiting the arrival of the girl's mother with custody papers, the Kenimer's and Betty Ann slipped off to Puerto Rico.

From there the trail led through Mexico, Haiti, the Dominican Republic, New York, Texas, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama and California.

Kenimer's attorneys said yesterday the traveling band had not harmed the pretty, brown-haired girl. They explained that the father had enrolled her in "a very exclusive school in Houston, Texas," and added that she had gained 11 pounds during the months with her father.

Superior Court Judge Ralph Pharr scheduled a custody hearing at a later date.

Betty Ann and her mother met in the courtroom and both burst into tears. As Mrs. Senter led the little girl away, Betty Ann seemed most concerned about her puppy, Mickey, who died during her absence.

Hope, Hempstead Share in Turnback Funds

Little Rock, Oct. 4 — (UP) — Quarterly turnbacks of tax receipts to counties and cities of Arkansas have been announced by State Treasurer Vance Clayton.

Counties will receive $418,863 in gasoline tax turnback, $217,896.38 under another, $225,763 in sales tax refund, $190,049 from the tax on real property, $100,000 in timber, and $68,276 from oil inspection fees.

Cities will receive $190,030 in sales tax turnback, $100,000 in gasoline turnback, $20,000 in sales tax, $117,200 in sales tax, and $212. Sales tax turnback, Hempstead will get $3,496.52 and the city of Hope will receive $2,237.52.

WEATHER FORECAST

Arkansas: Cloudy with rain, rain squalls over southwest this afternoon, over east, south tonight. Wednesday cloudy. Rain in east, central portions. Not much change in temperatures.

Maxwell's Death Sentence May Be Appealed

The sentence of Herman Maxwell, Negro, who is scheduled to die Friday, October 7, for rape of a white 14-year-old county housewife last July, will probably be appealed to the Arkansas Supreme Court if it was indicated here today.

Pine Bluff, Mo., attorney, a transcript of the trial from the local circuit clerk's office. He is expected to ask Judge Dexter Bush for a retrial here Thursday when Circuit Court reconvenes. If granted a retrial, an appeal will probably be requested.

The incident occurred near De Ann on July 20, and Maxwell was arrested the same day following a conviction secured by the state.

He was brought to trial August 8 and found guilty by a jury. On August 12, Judge Dexter Bush sentenced him to die in the electric chair on October 7.

Urges Unity to Get Rid of Labor Bill

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 4 — (UP) — Secretary of Labor Maurice J. Tobin today called on organized labor to replace discord and cross-purposes with "the solidarity of the labor movement" in securing such objectives as repeal of the Taft-Hartley act.

"It has already been proved that when an international crisis is being faced, or when the labor movement is being threatened within a state or in Washington, AFL and CIO can work together effectively and harmoniously," Tobin said in a speech prepared for the national AFL convention.

"If any union merely for a logical projection of the spirit behind such activities," the cabinet officer said, pointing out that he had no "program of unification" or any scheme for making labor one and indivisible.

He urged cooperation on the political level "if we are to get rid of Taft-Hartley" and realize other parts of President Truman's "fair deal."

Last November, Tobin said, "workers and farmers pulled together, not because there was any alliance, but because both groups had come to realize that the only real hope for a fair deal was the election of President Truman. We must keep alive and strengthen that community of interest which manifested itself last year."

Sunday the AFL executive committee rejected political cooperation with the CIO on a national scale, but left the way open for joint action locally.

Vandenberg Reported in Good Condition

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 4 — (UP) — Senator H. Vandenberg was reported in "excellent condition" today after undergoing a six-hour operation to remove a blood clot.

Bulletin was issued at 9:15 a. m. (EST) by Dr. John Alexander. He said: "Senator Vandenberg is in excellent condition. His reaction from the operation and anesthesia is normal and satisfactory."

The Wolf Has Taken Over But He Is Not Likely to Get Past Al Jolson's Door

By HAL BOYLE
New York — (UP) — There is a Broadway saying that Al Jolson didn't invent humor — he just found a way to put it in the bank. And at the king of schmuck, he is still a young man working overtime to keep the wolf from his door.

His fellow entertainers say how over this isn't necessary now. It's a hard life. The estimate that nasty old wolf would have chewed through $400,000 to $1,500,000 in greenbacks before he could cross the Jolson threshold.

More Violent Deaths in Arkansas

By The Associated Press
The violent death toll for the first two days of this week is at least five. Richard Overbeck, St. Louis, was killed Monday night when his automobile and a truck collided near Chicago.

Rita Sue Cartwright, 17, of Mulberry, died at Fort Smith Monday of injuries suffered when she fell from the fender of an automobile a week earlier.

A Negro, Sam Pearson, 39, was shot to death in North Little Rock Monday night. Two violent deaths were reported Sunday.

Czechs Follow Russia, Break With Slavs

By The Associated Press
Czechoslovakia today became the sixth cominform nation to sever its treaty of friendship and mutual assistance with Yugoslavia.

It was part of a sudden spurt of Russian bloc diplomatic activity affecting the Balkans, Germany and China.

The Czech government, besides scrapping the friendship treaty with its former cominform partner, demanded the recall from Prague of the Yugoslav ambassador. It also said that government considered the ambassador's presence undesirable and accused his embassy staff of including spies linked with an unnamed western power.

There was no immediate indication the requested recall of the Yugoslav ambassador would lead to a formal breaking of diplomatic relations between the two countries. However, a break in relations between Premier Marshal Tito's government and the countries of the cominform has been predicted.

In Belgrade, Tito warned the Soviet bloc that Yugoslavia is ready to break with Russia if "trying to endanger a small people." He spoke at the conclusion of Yugoslavia's biggest troop maneuvers this year.

On the other side of the world, the Nationalist Chinese government accused the Soviet Union of using the newly proclaimed Chinese communist republic as a puppet to hold China in chains.

Acting Nationalist President Li Tsung-jen said in reference to Russian recognition of the new Peiping regime: "The Chinese communist bandits, under the direction and leadership of the U. S. S. R., are a part of the communist international aggressor bloc."

The new regime has been recognized by two Russian bloc countries besides the U. S. S. R. — Bulgaria and Romania. Other satellites are expected to take action soon, now that the Kremlin nod has been given.

Bond Issue Approved

Washington, Oct. 4 — (UP) — The Arkansas Power and Light company was authorized by the securities and exchange commission yesterday to sell $8,700,000 worth of 30-year first mortgage bonds to finance new construction.

Compromise Farm Bill Is Offered

Washington, Oct. 4 — (UP) — Senator Young (R-ND) pushed a drive in the senate today to jettison the level of government price supports proposed in the new farm bill. The compromise bill would set up a schedule of price supports for the government to guarantee for its products.

Senator Young, of North Dakota, the Democratic leader, and others advised against trying to override government guarantees of farm prices. Lucas said that if support levels are set too high, the whole program may collapse and hurt farmers seriously.

Funds to Start Dardanelle Dam May Be Delayed

Washington, Oct. 4 — (UP) — Whether there is a chance that money will be appropriated this year to start the proposed $69,000,000 Dardanelle, Ark., dam was uncertain today.

The house has refused to approve a senate-amended bill including $1,100,000 for the Dardanelle dam.

The bill now is in the hands of a joint conference committee. On the house floor yesterday, Rep. Tackett of Arkansas asked house appropriations committee Chairman Cannon (D-Mo.) about prospects of the Dardanelle appropriation.

Baruch Favors Standby Defense Plan

New York, Oct. 4 — (UP) — Bernard M. Baruch, making his first detailed statement on Russia's atomic explosion, says the United States should immediately set up a standby mobilization plan, including "thoroughgoing civilian defense."

The financier, presidential adviser in two world wars, declared yesterday: "Everything possible should be planned in advance, debated and put in law, so each of us knows what is expected of him or her."

The 79-year-old Baruch, who differed with President Truman over the nation's state of preparedness, also made these major points in a statement to newsmen: "The atomic blast in Russia indicates that the United States should maintain our overwhelming advantage in the field of atomic weapons, until there is 'safe and sure' international control of atomic energy."

"The United States should lead its ground in insisting upon nothing less than a truly effective international control of atomic energy."

"The United States should re-examine its strategy for peace. Baruch said yesterday that President Truman was wise in making his Sept. 23 announcement of the atomic explosion in Russia.

The American people will rise to the occasion and what is expected of them. Baruch said that would be told this by a stand-by mobilization, to go into effect in an emergency, he declared.

The mobilization he outlined would include price, wage and rent controls, rationing priorities and anti-profiteering measures, along with other preparedness.

Changes Planned at Arkansas Girls' School

Little Rock, Oct. 4 — (UP) — Changes at the Arkansas Girls Training school were planned by two groups yesterday.

A survey committee recommended that farming operations at the school and at the state women's reformatory be reduced and that use of male convicts at the school be discontinued.

Howard Gladden, a member of the committee and administrative assistant to Governor McMath, said the recommendations will be considered by the girls school board.

Meanwhile, officials of the girls school met with state education department officials preparatory to starting a new educational program at the school. Education Commissioner E. J. Bond said that department services will be made available to the school.

Heavy, Rich Texas Rice Crop Reported

Beaumont, Tex., Oct. 4 — (UP) — A rich Texas rice crop, just ripe for harvest, was virtually shattered by storms accompanying the hurricane.

Storm Spends Self, Causing Little Damage

Houston, Oct. 4 — (UP) — A hurricane which came screaming out of the Gulf smashed into this Texas metropolis early today and surprised everyone by doing little damage.

A few plate glass store windows were broken as the wind swept in behind torrential rains which flooded streets and underpasses.

Debris was whipped down streets and trees bent horizontal as 80-mile an-hour winds whipped the city, whose 500,000 and more residents made it Texas' largest.

The hurricane churned in from the Gulf late last night, striking first at the industry-rich coast between Matagorda and Freeport, Tex., about 60 miles south of here.

One person was missing, much of a rice crop destroyed, and cotton heavily damaged as the hurricane twisted inland. Rains up to 7.21 inches at Port Arthur fell throughout the coastal area.

An exact estimate of total damage was impossible until further checks could be made. But it appeared heaviest damage was to rice and cotton, which the coast's vast and sprawling industry was relatively unharmed.

Galveston, island resort city about 50 miles southeast of here, caught the edge of the storm. But its high seawalls saved it from great damage.

Its force diminishing, the hurricane headed toward the Palacios-Lufkin area of East Texas where it is expected to hit early this afternoon. West oil fields in that area but little damage was expected.

The New Orleans weather bureau indicated the hurricane already had lost much of its punch when it hit Houston about 1:30 a. m. (CST) today.

The bureau said it had lost its clearly defined "eye" — the center of the storm near which destruction is greatest — when it reached Houston.

This morning many of the city's residents scoffed at the idea that a hurricane had passed in the night.

The Houston weather bureau was quick to get a positive reading on wind velocity. The bureau's instruments were being replaced and were not in a position to measure the storm. The bureau estimated the wind reached 90 miles an hour.

The golden Texas coast and its more than a million people had been preparing for the blow for two days. Many residents fled inland, planes were flown to West Texas, and public shelters were opened.

About 5,000 took cover in Houston's city auditorium and Sam Houston coliseum.

Stock Show Gets Ready for Second Opening

Little Rock, Oct. 4 — (UP) — Another attempt was made today to get the Arkansas livestock show off to a real start.

Most of yesterday's scheduled opening was postponed because of rain. The livestock show was postponed because of rain. The livestock show was postponed because of rain.

Another Plan to End Railway Strike Fails

St. Louis, Oct. 4 — (UP) — Still another hope for settlement of the Missouri Pacific strike went up in smoke last night. And this time there were a few sparks.

Guy A. Thompson, railroad trustee, charged the four striking unions with "callous disregard for those who are suffering from this cruel" strike.

He referred to the unions' refusal to end the walkout immediately and then placed their differences before three referees chosen by mutual agreement.

In rejecting Thompson's plan the unions submitted a counter proposal which called for full settlement of 191 claims as a basis for ending the walkout, now in its 24th day.

"Thompson wants to buy a settlement and that's the price," R. E. Davidson, brotherhood spokesman, declared.

The union offered 191 claims were of major importance and if conceded would cost more than $7,000,000 in back pay alone.

"I do not believe that there is a reasonable man or woman in the 10 states served by the Missouri Pacific who does not think that my proposal was wholly just, perhaps even generous," the trustee said.

"Therefore I had the right to believe it would be accepted."

There had been considerable optimism here before yesterday's action that a strike settlement would be reached.

Davidson said today Thompson is still using those exaggerated figures on the cost of the claims.

"All that he says in that statement is that unconditional surrender by the unions is the only thing that will suit him," Davidson added.

"He must pay some of those cases before the strike will be called off."

The hourly reason for the strike in the first place was that the Missouri Pacific just wouldn't pay any of the claims.

"If Thompson thinks we'll go back to work first and then negotiate the claims, he's mistaken."

Congress to Probe Complaints by High Officers That Naval Morale Is Very Low

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
Washington, Oct. 4 — (UP) — A thorough congressional investigation was promised today of complaints by high naval officers that navy morale is at a low ebb with resulting peril to national security.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) said the house armed services committee will get to the bottom of this as soon as possible. The committee will be busy for some time yet with its D-36 bomber investigation, scheduled to be resumed tomorrow.

Gunfire, Death Breaks Calm in Coal Dispute

Pittsburgh, Oct. 4 — (UP) — Gunfire and death broke the brief calm in the strike-scarred fields as the twin strikes of 800,000 steel and coal workers ground on today at a staggering cost of more than $30,000,000 a day.

Violence flared in Tennessee. A Virginia miner was killed in a rock fall. Pickets wrecked machinery at a Pennsylvania bituminous plant.

America's economy staggered and creaked in the wake of the two-pronged pensions shutdown.

John L. Lewis' 400,000 soft coal diggers who work in the bowels of the earth east of the Mississippi have been strike-idle since Sept. 19. That's 16 payless days.

And 500,000 of Philip Murray's CIO steelworkers struck 65 percent of the nation's steel mills and iron ore mines last Saturday.

Pennons are involved in both disputes. Steel picketing is orderly and quiet — everywhere. It's the most peaceful walkout in history for Murray's men. Some steel strikes in the past have resulted in violence.

But there has been little peace in the coal fields. A week ago gunfire, rock-throwing and explosions ripped the mining countryside.

Violence broke out anew yesterday.

Matt Bunch, UMW international representative, said 20 union miners on a "peaceful" mission were ambushed at Elkview, Tenn., by non-union miners. Three men were shot, one seriously. Two others are missing. No arrests were made.

Bunch said between 20 and 40 shots were fired. Men adding to the trouble were walking up a small path toward a non-union mine. At Whitehall, state Patroman Harold Wade said striking UMW members were in an ugly mood over the incident and there was talk of their arming themselves.

At Grundy, Va., Johnnie Compton, 23, was killed in a rock fall that buried the truck in which he was hauling non-union mined coal. An employee of a strike-bound mine was questioned several hours, then freed.

Coal is being dug. One fifth of Lewis' miners — 80,000 anthracite diggers in West Virginia — are working. About 2,000 bituminous miners in 10 western states — trooped to the pits yesterday.

Lewis himself ordered them back to work. He said they were home heading mines — where hammer contract talks with mine owners.

Additionally, 15,000 non-union miners and 15,000 AFL progressive union miners in Illinois are working.

Young Purtle Winner at State Show

The youth that exhibits the prize calf at the Third District Livestock Show is usually the winner in the state show also on a basis of past showings.

Yesterday Ned Purtle, 15, of Arkadelphia, showed the grand champion steer of Junior Division in the state show. Last year it was Joe H. Wren of Prescott. Both took the Third District Livestock Show honors.

Cattle Being Tested for TB in County

Dr. H. E. Arthur, veterinarian, Bureau of Animal Industry, is testing cattle in Hempstead county for tuberculosis. Dr. Arthur will be in the county through October 22.

This tuberculosis test is primarily for the purpose of detecting herds of beef animals. The test is free of charge to cattle owners.

Requests to be considered should reach County Agent, Oliver L. Adams at once.

This test is a real service to milk cow owners from a family health standpoint as well as the health of the livestock.

Man Charged With Raping Girl, Age 8

Little Rock, Oct. 4 — (UP) — A 27-year-old man was charged with raping an 8-year-old girl in North Little Rock last night.

Prosecutor Edwin Dunaway, who filed the charge, said he would ask Circuit Judge Gus Fulk to commit Otis Potter of near England, Ark., to the state hospital for a mental observation.

Potter, married and the father of two children, was accused of attacking the child after luring her from a North Little Rock motion picture theater last night on the pretext her father had sent for her. He was arrested by North Little Rock police early today.

Not Careful Enough

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 4 — (UP) — For years Albert Carney sprinkled his neighbors with water every night. He got neighbors he liked to "water it down" to reduce the fire hazard.

Last night Carney's garage house burned to the ground — bed and all. He escaped with burns on his arms and hips.

Chinese fans are believed to be the oldest known to civilization.

Murder Convictions Upheld

Little Rock, Oct. 3 — (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme court today upheld two murder convictions and affirmed a rehearing in the case of Thomas Edwin Black, whose death sentence for murder already had been affirmed.

One conviction affirmed was that of George Cooper, Gravette radio repair shop owner, sentenced to life imprisonment for the "valve stem" slaying of his wife, Lois, at Gravette, last Dec. 23.

The other was that of Royal Houston, Negro, sentenced to seven years on a second degree murder conviction for the fatal shooting of William Irvine, 18-year-old Negro, at Madison, St. Francis county, Jan. 9, 1948.

Medical Student Goes on Trial for Murder

Little Rock, Oct. 4 — (UP) — Harold Raymond Houchins, Jr., blond and wavy-haired former University of Arkansas medical student, will go on trial for his life here Friday.

The handsome 23-year-old defendant is charged with the fatal poisoning of Seth L. Reed in a hotel room here last November. Reed was a Clarksville insurance man and Masonic leader.

Jack Holt, defense counsel for Houchins and former state attorney general, indicated that he will present a stiff court battle to have his client acquitted. Prosecuting Attorney Edwin E. Dunaway is expected to ask the death penalty.

Houchins was arrested last May following detective work by state police and local officers that resulted in the formation of the Pulaski county homicide bureau. The youth was taken to Austin, Texas for a lie detector test and state police said he later admitted an attack on Reed.

Holt indicated that he will base part of his defense on the removal of Houchins to another state for the lie detector test. Houchins allegedly took sleeping tablets in an effort to commit suicide en route to Austin.

The young defendant twice was refused bond by Circuit Judge Gus Fulk. Prosecutor Dunaway fought attempts to bail him by pointing out that Houchins also was being questioned in connection with another murder, that of Ellwood D. Neal, Little Rock business man.

WCSA Circles Meet Monday

Circle 1, met in the home of Mrs. O. A. Graves at 3 p.m. Monday, with Mrs. L. B. Tooley and Mrs. C. D. Lauterbach, co-hostesses. The Graves home was decorated with fall flowers at vantage points. Mrs. Albert Graves, circle leader, presided during the business session. Mrs. R. L. Broach was in charge of the program on "Why Home Mission Schools." Those assisting on the program were Mrs. E. J. McCabe, Mrs. J. M. Houston, and Mrs. John Arnold.

Following the program, the members were invited into the dining room for a social hour. The dining table was centered with a lovely arrangement of fruit, and flowers, surrounded with miniature jack-o-lanterns and pumpkins, carrying out the Halloween motif. Mrs. Albert Graves presided at the silver service, and delicious refreshments were served to 18 members.

Circle 2 met in the home of Mrs. J. B. Koonce, at 3 p.m. Monday, with Mrs. Lex Helms, Sr., and Mrs. Dale Wilson, co-hostesses. Mrs. Webb Laseter, circle leader, conducted the business session. Mrs. George Newbern, program leader, led the study on "Schools That the W. S. C. S. are Supporting."

A dessert course with coffee was served by the hostesses, to 19 members.

Mrs. Ernest O'Neal was hostess to members of Circle 3 at 3 p.m. Monday in her home on South Hervey, with Mrs. C. V. Nunn, Sr. co-hostess.

The meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison. Mrs. Nunn, circle leader, presided during the business session. The devotion was given by Mrs. Annie Bostick. Her subject was "Wisdom is Priceless" taken from Second Timothy, 2nd chapter and 13th verse.

Mrs. Nunn was in charge of the program on "Why Home Missions." She was assisted by Mrs. R. T. White, Mrs. L. B. Tooley and Mrs. C. D. Lester.

Mrs. Homer Hill was welcomed into the circle as a new member. The hostesses served delightful refreshments to 13 members and one guest.

Mrs. Delton Houston, circle leader, opened the meeting with prayer. The roll call and minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Schenck. Mrs. Syd McMath gave the treasurer's reports and various committee reports were heard.

Mrs. Earl Young gave a most interesting devotional. The program was in charge of Mrs. Charles Wylie on "Why Home Mission Schools, and Christ the Cornerstone of Our Schools." It was announced that October 26 would be designated as the "World Day of Prayer."

At the conclusion of the program, a dessert plate with coffee was served to 16 members.

Circle 4 met in the home of Mrs. Charles Harrell with Mrs. J. J. Honeycutt co-hostess at 3 p.m. Monday. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. D. B. Thompson. Mrs. F. H. Webb, circle leader, conducted the business session. The program chairman, Miss Marble Ethridge presented an interesting program on "Why Home Mission Schools." Those assisting her were Mrs. L. D. Barnum, Mrs. J. M. Harbin, Mrs. A. E. Patton, and Mrs. Charles Harrell. Mrs. H. E. Benson played hymns on the piano for the meeting.

The devotion was given by Mrs. Charles Taylor and her subject was "Wisdom."

The hostesses served pie and coffee to 19 members and one visitor.

"Buick's the Buy"

It's part of every street scene—something you see every day.

Car owners in three different price classes—all happy about the same thing.

One of them drives a new Buick SPECIAL, which you see poking forth its new, bold-look forefront at the left of our picture.

Another will tell you there's nothing like the SUPER's "happy medium" of size and comfort, power and easy handling, style and standing.

And if you're looking for prestige, where is your money going to buy so much as in that handsome 18-footer, the ROADMASTER, with its 150-hp performance and really royal bearing?

But all these good folks get together on this:

There's no ride quite so soft and cushiony as the Buick ride, whatever the size and series. There's no power quite so satisfyingly lively as Buick's high-compression, high-pressure Fireball power.

Above all, there's no "buy" like a Buick—no car that gives you such a rich dollar's worth of smartness, handling, comfort and liveliness for every dollar you pay.

So why not look the whole line over? Your Buick dealer has these grand travel-mates in a baker's dozen of different body types and sizes. Start your shopping in his showroom—and you'll find that even on delivery he has exactly what you want.

BUICK alone has all these features

Silk-smooth DYNAFLOW DRIVE • FULL-VIEW VISION from enlarged glass area • SWING-EASY DOORS and easy access • "LIVING SPACE" INTERIORS with Deep-Cradle cushions • Buoyant-riding QUADREFLEX COIL SPRING • Lively FIREBALL STRAIGHT-EIGHT POWER with SE F-SETTING VALVE LIFTERS (Dynaflow Models) plus HI-POISED ENGINE MOUNTINGS • Low-pressure tires on SAFETY-RIDE RIMS • Double-Duty VENTIPORTS • DUREX BEARINGS, main and connecting rods • BODY BY FISHER

Porker Mentor Denies Rough Tactics Used

By The Associated Press

An unhappy note has entered the Arkansas Razorbacks' cheer over their conquest of Texas Christian as the Arkansas prepare for their second Southwest conference football game of the young season.

That is the prospect that their fullback, Leon (Muscles) Campbell, may not be in top physical condition for Saturday's game with Baylor at Waco.

Campbell did not don a suit for a light practice session Monday, and Coach John Barnhill said the league's leading ground gainer was having trouble walking after suffering a hip bruise in the TCU tilt.

Otherwise, the Razorbacks have no serious injuries. They spent most of the afternoon polishing their offense and developing a defense against Baylor plays.

Baylor's Bears came out of their victory over Mississippi State with serious injuries. They had a light workout in a heavy rain.

Texas Coach Blair Cherry reported three of his key players suffering knee injuries as he started drilling the Longhorns for an engagement with Oklahoma. They are Halfback Bubba Shands, End Ben Proctor, Fullback Ray Borne-man and Linebacker June Davis.

The Texas Aggies were beset with colds and bruises but expect to be at full strength by Saturday, when they will meet Louisiana State university. The Aggies' practice was shut short by rain Monday.

Southern Methodist, which doesn't play this week, held a long skull practice. The Mustangs came out of their win over Missouri without injury.

Texas Christian Coach Dutch Meyer said several of his players were injured and that he had protested Arkansas' "rough tactics" to the conference.

Coach Barnhill, rough Arkansas played "aggressive, rough football," but flatly denied that the Razorbacks were guilty of any "dirty work."

Campbell ran his rushing total, compiled in two games, to 321 yards by netting 85 against TCU.
 His nearest rival, Bob Smith of
 A. and M., with 266 yards, got only 46 against Oklahoma. Smith has played in three games.

Though throttled by Arkansas, Lindy Berry of TCU continues to lead in passing, having completed 99 of 74 for 297 yards, and in total offense with 532 yards on 109 plays.

TCU's Jimmy Hickey leads the punters with an average of 41.1 yards by netting 85 against Arkansas. Louie Schaefer of Arkansas is third with a 38.2 yard average.

Morris Bailey of TCU caught no passes last week but still leads the receivers with 104 yards on 10 catches.

Texas leads in team offense with 1430 yards in three games and in defense, giving up only 227 yards per game.

Joe Kuhel Is Given Outright Release

Washington Oct. 4 — (P)—The eighth place Washington Senators of 1949 today were shopping for a new manager to pilot their 1950 baseball team in the American league.

"The book is open" said club President Clark Griffith after announcing the release of Joe Kuhel as manager last night.

With the final standings for the
 '49 season showing the Senators 47 games behind the American league Yankees Griffith said he had to let Kuhel go.

"It's just baseball," Griffith said. "I found no fault with Joe's managing. It was just the breaks that ruined Joe. Joe's a fine boy and in the two years with us things just didn't break for him.
 It's time for the Senators to try something different."

Someone to Love

By IRENE LONNEN ERNHART Copyright, 1949, NEA SERVICE, INC.

The Story: Although Tod Duran has married Jenny he still is unable to forget being jilted by Liz Conover. Jenny finds her struggle for happiness difficult when Tod takes her to live with his family.
 There are quarrels and they finally move to a trailer camp while Tod is finishing his college education. Jenny discovers that she is going to have a baby and must quit her job as a model which has given them money to live on. Then Tod meets an old friend from State University, Rick Morris. Rick is quite taken with Jenny and Jenny hopes that Rick comes often to see them. Rick is good for Tod and for her, too.

Jenny and Rick had a lot of fun in the super-market. He insisted on paying for the groceries, because of so many extravagant items he'd selected himself, mushrooms, some terribly expensive cheese and a bottle of wine.

When Tod returned from his last class Rick, with one of Jenny's ruffled aprons tied around his middle, was in the kitchenette cooking dinner.

Tod was in an extra good humor.
 He and Rick sampled the wine and had a high time kidding each other.
 They had just finished the dessert and Rick was saying "You said to Tod, out of a clear sky,
 'S'ay you know Liz Conover —
 'Yes."

"I heard she's getting a divorce already from that Courtney fellow she married last spring."

"No one said anything for a second or two. Rick looked from one to the other of them. 'Did I say anything wrong?'"

"No," Tod said. He rose and began hunting for an ash tray.
 "The ash tray is right behind you, on the desk," Rick said quickly. And now tell me what's wrong with my mentioning Liz."

"Well, if you must know Rick," Jenny said, turning the water on in the sink for the dishes, "Tod was engaged to Liz last spring, and she jilted him, and then I caught him sort of on the rebound. She ducked down then to get the soap flakes out of the cupboard, because she couldn't face the angry look on Tod's face."

"That's not true, Jenny, and you know it," Rick looked uncomfortable.
 "I didn't mean to bring any skeletons out of the closet."

"It's all right, Rick," Jenny said.
 She was sure of herself now.
 "Skeleton or not, it's better to have things out in the open, isn't it?"

Anyway, I love Tod, and even if I did get him on the rebound, I'm glad I did. We're going to make a success of our marriage."

"Jenny's right," Tod said. His eyes met Rick's briefly as he set the ash tray down on the table.
 "Want to drive down to the drug store with me," he said. "I'm out of cigarettes."

"I've really got to be going,"
 Rick said.

Jenny protested, but only half-heartedly, and after the usual things were said, Rick left. Tod drove him to his rooming house.
 "I didn't know you and Liz were engaged last spring," Rick said as they got in the car.

"We were supposed to be married as soon as I got home from that hospital in New York," Tod said. "She and Courtney eloped
 the day before I got back."

"You were lucky," Rick said.
 "Lucky?" Tod said. "To marry Jenny you mean."

"And to have escaped marrying Liz. She's no good. She'll be married to half a dozen fellows before she's through. You'd better get her off your mind and be happy with Jenny. She's a swell kid."

Jenny was all finished with the dishes when he got home.
 "There's nothing to apologize for, Jenny." He looked down at her, seeing the tremble sweetness of her lips, the softness of her eyes, dark-circled in her thin face. He ought to be ashamed for even told me at the office. She wouldn't talk to me, but she left her number."

"Maybe I'd better go call her"

At the trailer camp office he found the slip with the phone number on it in his mail slot.
 Ma's querulous voice came loudly and reproachfully over the phone.

"We figured you was pretty busy, but like I told Harriet today, looked like you didn't care what become of us. We ain't seen hide nor hair of you for weeks and weeks."

"I've been thinkin' I must look you up."

"I know Jenny's probably doin' everything she can to keep you away from us, but it looks like —"

"Look Ma, if you phoned me to pick a quarrel let's break it off right now. I've been meaning to come around and see you. We sold the shack that belonged to Jenny's father and got $500 for it. I could let you have some money if you're hard up. Jenny wouldn't care if you really needed it."

"No, thanks. Joe's got a good job with a friend of his. He says soon as he can he's going to get us a nice place again. Joe'll take care of his old mother even if you don't think enough of her to come around."

"I been busy with school, and Jenny's had to quit work. We'll be over to see you though soon, maybe tomorrow night."

"You don't need to bring her to see me!" Ma said firmly.
 He walked back to the trailer slowly, feeling a miserable sense of guilt.

Breath-taking new 1950 Studebaker!

IT'S THE "NEXT LOOK" IN CARS

All over America, all eyes are on this dramatically different 1950 Studebaker. It's the most sensational advance in car styling since Studebaker introduced the "new look" in cars three years ago.

This 1950 Studebaker's long, low, luxurious—and it's trim, sleek and flight-creamed—no bulging excess bulk to squander gasoline.

Stop in and get a closeup eyeful of this breath-tak-

The Eastern Star members and their families enjoyed a weiner roast on Friday evening on the lawn of the country home of Mr. and Mrs. George Cashman.

After a tour of Mrs. Cashman's green house weiners were roasted and marshmallows toasted over an outdoor grill. A delicious supper was served from a lawn table covered with a white damask cloth. A variety of games and conversation were enjoyed. About forty were present for the occasion.

Picnic Supper Held
at Suckles Lake
Mr. and Mrs. Al Williams, Mrs. John McGill and Charles Province entertained with a picnic supper on Friday evening at Suckles Lake. Guests included: Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Bensberg, Mrs. E. L. Cass, Mrs. E. M. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hays, Jr., Virginia Ann Hays, Mrs. Jess Hays, Sr., Miss Julia Logan, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Logan, Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Burks and Wilbert Burks.

Mrs. Lee Montgomery Honors Granddaughter
Mrs. Lee Montgomery complimented her granddaughter Virginia Claire Cruse with a dinner party on Friday evening at her home in celebration of her eighth birthday anniversary.

Arrangements of yellow and white dahlias graced the buffet and dining table. The guests were served a delicious two course dinner from three small tables laid with white cloths and centered with small containers filled with marigolds. The yellow and white motif was accentuated with yellow nut cups and place cards and white individual cakes embossed with yellow roses. Party hats were given as favors.

After dinner bingo was played with prizes being won by Barbara Grimes, Marion Buchanan, Amelia Harrell, Barbara McCartney, and Nancy Lewis. Other guests included: Bonnie Elgin, Dolores Escarce, Karenina Hooks, Lynn McCartney, Martha Adam, and Belva Jo Langston. Mrs. Montgomery was assisted by Mrs. Tom Cruse.

Hog-Baylor Game Tops in Conference

By The Associated Press

Southwest conference teams lived up to their reputation of feasting on the dopesters again last week.

Conference play in the land of razzle dazzle saw Arkansas rise up to down highly touted TCU 27 to 7 in Fayetteville.

Southern Methodist shaved Missouri in a thrill-a-minute, score-a-minute 28-27 win in Dallas. The Methodists got a lesson in the spirit "T" from Missouri last year and evidently learned it well.

Baylor took a bruising battle from Mississippi State 14 to 7. The Baptists had to stick to fundamentals to do it, too.

Rice ruined the pickers as they took it on the chin from a heretofore impotent LSU Tiger 14-7.

The Owls were tagged near the top in pre-season billing.

Texas A. and M. lost to Oklahoma 33-13 as expected and Texas took it easy in a 56-7 mauling of Idaho.

This week's headliner is the Texas-Oklahoma fracas in the Cotton bowl Saturday. Oklahoma's tested powerhouse runs into a Texas team that has run wild over all this year's opposition.

Texas Aggies play LSU in Baton Rouge Saturday night and Rice gets a breather with New Mexico in Houston.

Arkansas goes to Waco to take on Baylor in another conference tilt, which has many implications. SMU gets a week off before meeting Rice in its conference opener.

Miss Frances Thrasher spent Saturday in Little Rock.

Brent V. Wagner, who has been visiting his parents Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Wagner, returned to his home in Joplin, Mo. Saturday.

DOROTHY DIX Partying Husband

Dear Miss Dix: My husband and I married very young and are now past middle age. Our five children are married. We have always lived happily together but now a break has come in our lives because my husband wants to go with a fast set and has been going on wild parties. He begs me to go with him and says he does nothing that I cannot do. He says that we married so young we didn't have any fun when we were a girl and boy and now that we haven't very long to live we should get the most of our lives. He is hurt and worried when I refuse to go and try to keep him from going. I have two reasons for not doing so. One is that I don't care for that kind of life. The other is that I am jealous of two women who go. He says my jealousy is without foundation. What should I do? Go with him or refuse to let him go?

A WORRIED WIFE
Answer: If you have a grain of intelligence in your head and want to save your home you will get yourself the best-looking clothes you can purchase and have a facial and a permanent and stay out with your husband while the invitation is still good.

Neglected
Otherwise you are going to find yourself one of the neglected wives who sit at home of an evening alone and think bitter thoughts while their husbands are out playing. And likely as not you will end up in the divorce court because you are leaving the field open to the gold-diggers and they are hot on the trail of every man whose wife refuses to play with him. You have to keep up with your husband or else you lose him. There is no fact in nature truer than that.

Just remember that when your husband steps out he goes to places where he meets pretty young women half your age better looking than you were even in your youth who yes-yes him and fall into all of his plans and are full of laughter and gaiety and help him enjoy himself. Then you will perceive the folly of being a kill-joy and of interfering with his pleasure. Then you will see how little it profits you to have him con- trast your mental attitude as well as your looks with these little playfellows.

Dear Dorothy Dix: When people have to make their homes with some one else why are they so difficult to get along with? Why do they develop such an extreme sensitiveness? Why can't they realize that others in the family need some consideration too? Why must one tread as if on eggs in dealing with them? Why must they have special invitations to join family activities? Why must they wear the air of a martyr? In short why can't they make the burden they are to others easier to bear?

ANSWER IF YOU CAN
Answer: I can't answer it. I gave up trying to answer the conundrum long ago. The only explanation I can suggest is that dependence is a shame that cuts so deeply into the soul of a man or woman that they set up sensitiveness as a sort of defense mechanism and spread their feelings all over the place so that it is impossible to move without stepping on them. It is their way of getting the attentions that they crave and making themselves important in the family circle. And that is pitifully childish but it is pitiful all the same.

Of course all of this does make those who are dependent upon their lot so forlorn they are so pitiable that those of us who do not have to find out how steep are the stairs in another man's house as the Spanish proverb puts it may well bear with them patiently and take the trouble to humor their weaknesses.

Dear Miss Dix: Do you think it is brutal to pinch a child to make it mind in the presence of guests? He cries but they think he is cry-

Henderson Is Rated at Top of AIC Loop

By GEORGE MILLER

Little Rock, Oct. 3.—(AP)— This year's big three in Arkansas intercollegiate football—Henderson, Arkansas Tech and Ouachita—ended the week-end in a three way tie for first place in conference standings.

Henderson's razzle-dazzle Reddies continued their "you gotta outscore us to win" attitude in a 30-20 victory over Arkansas A. and M. in Monticello.

Henderson has rolled up 77 points in two conference tilts this year. Arkansas Tech opened up its big guns to thrash a fumbling College of the Ozarks squad 34 to 7 in Russellville. Tech tore through the Ozark defense early in the first ing because I scolded him. My mother says I am a snake to do it. She is angry at me every time I do it she loses her head about it. C.N.O.

Answer: I do not see how any mother could be so cruel as to bruise the tender flesh of a little child by pinching it. You are living too late. You belong in the days of the Inquisition and would have made a grand torturer. I don't believe it is necessary to beat up children to make them behave. If you will establish the habit of obedience of children in everyday life you will not have to pinch them to make them mind in public. (Released by The Bell Syndicate Inc.)
